James the Apostle & Eighth Sunday after Trinity

Collect for James the Apostle

Lord God, the source of truth and love,
keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship,
united in prayer and the breaking of bread,
and one in joy and simplicity of heart,
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Readings for James the Apostle

Jeremiah 45.1-5, Acts 11.27 - 12.2, Matthew 20.20-28

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion,
then were we like those who dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter

Restrictions eased - what happens in our churches - a summary

The national church has issued new guidance now most of the legal restrictions have been removed. We are urged to still be very careful, especially as infection rates are still high.

When you come to church:

- * please use the hand sanitiser available and wear a face mask if possible.
- * there are no longer cards in the pews on the right hand side when entering the church. You are free to sit where you want. The left hand side still has cards in to help with social distancing for those who feel more comfortable that way. Please respect each others needs for space.
- * in August we continue to use instrumental music only music, unless a service happens outside. If the weather forces us in, please sing wearing a face mask.
- * communion by default happens in one kind. If you wish to receive wine from a common cup, please indicate by stepping in front of the cup, when you come to receive. We will still receive standing in single file.
